

President's Message Werner Willoughby

On behalf of the Torrance Sister City Association, I would like to extend our condolences to the family of the late Ken Miller, former Mayor of Torrance. TSCA came into existence in 1973 when Ken was the Mayor, and his signature with the then-Mayor of Kashiwa, sealed the deal for a cultural exchange program between the cities of Torrance and Kashiwa, Japan. Ken's support has fostered thousands of friendships, not only between the people of our two cities but among the people within the cities--people whose paths would have never crossed but for the program. As we now engage in the process of selecting the delegation of eight students for our 2020 exchange, we continue the legacy that Ken began in 1973. Please see the article appearing in this issue about Ken, written by former TSCA president, Hazel Taniguchi.

Our biggest fundraiser for the student exchange program is the annual Bunka-Sai, or Japanese Cultural Festival, which is coming soon on April 18-19, from 11 am to 5 pm each day. Many thanks to the attendees of the first planning meeting held on Jan. 29th. The remaining three meetings, all on Wednesdays, are scheduled for February 26, March 18, and April 8, at 7:00 pm in the Polly Watts Room, second floor of the Katy Geissert Civic Center Library. Please join us with your ideas and suggestions.

The Bunka-Sai is not only a fundraiser, but a reunion of many TSCA friends and supporters. Volunteers are critical for its success. Please consider some ways you can contribute to our 47th annual event: (1) secure donations for opportunity drawing prizes from local businesses; (2) solicit ads for our program – business related or personal; (3) help staff a booth; (4) cook/bake delicious food in one of the facility kitchens; (5) help recruit and manage volunteers; (6) set-up Friday and/or tear-down Sunday; (7) move equipment in and out of our storage facility; (8) help with stage performances; (9) sell opportunity drawing tickets; (10) assist in the hourly drawing and gift booths; and much more. We are always looking for new friends to be part of this exciting team, so please email us at torrancesistercityinfo@gmail.com.

Included in this issue is the application to purchase an ad in our Bunka-Sai program. If you would like an electronic copy of the application, request one by email, torrance-sistercityinfo@gmail.com. About 1,000 to 1,500 program booklets are printed and distributed to an estimated 2,000+ visitors to the festival each year. Do you own, work for, or know a company or organization that might be interested in having an ad in our program booklet? There were 62 companies, large and small, local and international, individuals as well as nonprofits, who purchased ads last year. The ads are a great way to advertise your business or one that you patronize. They can also be congratulatory messages for a special occasion or personal messages in support of TSCA.

We also depend on memberships to sustain our organization. If you have renewed your TSCA membership for the year, thank you. If you have not, please visit our website or use the membership application in this newsletter and renew today. Your membership supports our goal of promoting friendship, goodwill, and understanding

NEWS FROM JAPAN BY AKIKO NOBUSAWA, KIRA

On January 20th, the KIRA Torrance Committee had an annual New Year's Party at Palette Kashiwa, KIRA headquarters. Twenty-nine members attended the festivities with four honorable guests: Karl and Sharlin Takauye, Alison Abraham and Brandon Matsumoto. After the regular business meeting, a new year party followed. All of us were so thrilled to answer the 10 questions done by Alison. Bingo game and Janken game were also activities. It was such a successful opportunity that we could feel the unity of the long-standing KIRA Torrance Committee over having the delicious boxed dinners and playing games.

2020 Torrance Committee Board Members

Treasurer: Mariko Hayasaka, Chair: Hisataka Takikawa, Vice Chair: Yumi Shii and Liaison: Yuko Ishibashi (New)

Hitoshi Watanabe works at a precision machine manufacturer and stayed in Torrance for three years as an oversea staff with his family from 1991 to 1994. At that time he got a lot of hospitalities from Torrance people and this time he hopes to enhance the relation between two cities as an adult leader.

Ken Miller

August 22, 1922—January 19, 2020
Mayor of Torrance 1970-1978

Ken Miller was and will always be known as the “Sister City Mayor.”

Ken Miller was elected to the Torrance City Council in 1962 and served for two terms. In 1970, he was elected Mayor of Torrance and served in that position for two terms.

On February 20, 1973, Mayor Miller and then-Kashiwa Mayor Ryotaro Yamazawa signed the affiliation papers establishing a Sister City relationship between Torrance and Kashiwa. The relationship is now in its 47th year and continues successfully through mutually-established programs, dedicated volunteers, and long friendships between the citizens of both cities. The TSCA brochure features a photo of Ken Miller planting a friendship tree in Kashiwa in 1973. Photos of the signing and tree-planting are on display in a Sister City showcase at the West Annex.

The Recreation Center in Torrance is named after Ken Miller. This is the venue where TSCA holds several events: the annual Alumni Reunion, the square dance and chili cook-off, and Bunka-Sai.

In 2008, Ken Miller was honored by TSCA with a Partnership Award, for his many years of participation in the Sister City Program. This award is given to community members who support TSCA’s mission and the relationship with Kashiwa.

In 2008 also, the Torrance Rose Float Association recognized and honored the Sister City Program with the Rose Parade float of that year, “Festival of Flowers.” Riding the float were Hazel Taniguchi, then-president of TSCA, Akemi Kosuge, representing Kashiwa, Mayor Frank Scotto, and Former Mayor Ken Miller, who said he thoroughly enjoyed the experience.

In an interview by CitiCABLE 3, Former Mayor Ken Miller mentioned the Sister City Program and how pleasantly surprised he was that the relationship has “lasted so long.” He also said that the Sister City Program was “a labor of love.”

We will miss Ken Miller. ☘

Host a student from Kashiwa, Japan, for 1 week in August

(August 3-10 or August 13-20, 2020)

Share our American culture with a student from Kashiwa for the experience of a lifetime!

"We really enjoyed hosting Mina and Kana and sharing the American and South Bay cultures with them!" ~ The Staal Family

"Hosting is a fun and enriching experience, and each student becomes a part of our family." ~ The Shetti Family

The students stay with two host families during their 18-day stay in Torrance. All daytime activities are planned and hosted by the Torrance Sister City Association (TSCA). Host families are responsible for transporting their students to and from the West Annex at City Hall each morning and late afternoon. Some weeknight activities are planned and host families are welcome to join the fun! At all other times, the host families will arrange their own activities and meals with their exchange student in accordance with TSCA guidelines. Each host family will have one weekend to plan their own activities. Kashiwa students are able to communicate in English.

A Host Families orientation will be held in late June or early July.

Supporting the Student Cultural Exchange Program

January 2020

Dear Friends of Torrance Sister City Association,

The Torrance Sister City Association will hold its 47th Bunka-Sai Cultural Festival at the Torrance Cultural Arts Center on Saturday and Sunday, April 18 and 19, 2020.

All proceeds will be used to meet the objectives of our Student Cultural Exchange Program. Each year in July, Torrance sends eight high school students and an adult leader to Kashiwa, Japan, Torrance's sister city. Kashiwa sends a similar group to Torrance in August. Both groups have firsthand cross-cultural experiences that will enhance their knowledge and understanding of each other's culture and form many long-lasting friendships.

We need prizes for our Bunka-Sai drawings. We would appreciate a donation from you to be used as a drawing prize. Names of contributors will be listed in our program booklet if your donation is received by March 27. Contributors will also be acknowledged at the time of the drawing.

Memories of Japan

Religion in Japan

Yuko Wilson

TSCA 2019 Student Delegate

Religious influence throughout Japan's history is brought to life through temples and shrines that preserve ancient culture. In Japan, religions with centuries of history such as Shinto and Buddhism co-exist with relatively newer or foreign religions such as Christianity.

During my stay in Kashiwa, I was fortunate to be able to visit a few places that reflect Japan's current religious climate. On the first free day, my host sister took me to her high school in Tokyo to attend class with her and experience Japanese school life firsthand. Her school is Buddhism-affiliated, and therefore at the start of each school day they set aside a minute for all of the students to practice silent meditation. Sitting at my desk in the back of the classroom, I was astounded to see how the talkative and rowdy students instantly quieted and sat down, heads bowed. Once class ended, my host sister and her friends showed me around their school. The most surprising stop on our tour was the full-sized Buddhist prayer room on the outskirts of the campus. The students led me up the polished stepping stones and through a massive wooden doorway to a dimly lit room furnished only with tatami mats and a lavish golden altar. Being able to experience a school lifestyle so distinctively different from the norm in Torrance was a very thought-provoking and intriguing experience.

On the second free day, my host family took me to attend Sunday service at a local Christian church called Nihon Baptist Kashiwa Kyokai. This church was very unique because they were known and appreciated by the community for the Christian preschool they run. On Sunday, parents of the preschool children and other Christians in the neighborhood gathered in a chapel above the school for Sunday service. After we sang a few Japanese hymns, the pastor shared a very in-depth and structured message about the 12 disciples. Following the Sunday service, the pastor was kind enough to answer some questions I had about the coexistence of Buddhism, Shinto, and Christianity in modern Japanese society. He touched on various aspects of religious thought in Japan, including sakoku (a 200-year period in which Japan closed itself off from all foreign religious influence), and Japan's collectivistic culture, which emphasizes group goals, tradition, and conformity. He accredited sakoku and the collectivistic culture to the preservation of ancient Buddhist and Shinto traditions throughout generations, and hypothesized that they might also be a reason as to why foreign religions such as Christianity have believers in less than 1% of the Japanese population.

Being able to observe Buddhist practices at the high school and discuss Japan's current religious climate at the Christian church was a highlight of my trip to Kashiwa. Not only did it deepen my understanding of cultural traditions in Japan, I had a lot of fun talking with students at the high school about their experiences attending a school so different from mine, and talking with the pastor and other church members about the various programs and events that their church organizes for the community in Kashiwa. I'm so thankful for my experiences with the TSCA exchange program, and I can't wait to go to Japan again! ☸

Rare Japanese Goldfish

Keiichiro Itou

Do you know the Pokémon called Goldeen? Goldeen is inspired by a Japanese goldfish. It is a goldfish called “tosakin.” It is a one-of-a-kind goldfish which I like. I will introduce tosakin because they have a lot of attractive features.

A feature of the tosakin is that they have a tail which curls to their side. It may be described as “an underwater ballerina” or “the queen of the goldfish” because of its beautiful tail. Tosakin was created through selective breeding in 1845 by a man named Suga. Back in the day, many people called Kochi prefecture, Tosa. It is difficult to create the beautiful tail of the Tosakin. The probability is one out of tens of thousands of goldfish.

I think you can learn a lot of things about tosakin. There is not only tosakin, but also many kinds of goldfish in Japan. If you are interested in Japanese goldfish, would you like to look up Japanese goldfish? ☘

Japanese Monsters

Takumi Yuzawa

There are various monsters called Yokai in Japan. They are many kinds and have various habits. First of all, I will introduce you to a famous monster. The name of the monster is Kyuubi. She is a fox with nine tails. She has a high rank among monsters, and is strong and beautiful. Kyuubi takes the shape of a woman, then approaches powerful people, and destroys the country.

Next, I will introduce the strongest demon at the top level among monsters. His name is Syutendouji. He is the demon boss and the strongest demon. Its strength is so frightening, the Japanese emperor is afraid of him and dispatches a subjugation squad. The soldiers poisoned him and fought, but it was still a close victory. He bit a soldier's head off.

Finally, I will introduce a funny monster. His name is Makuragaeshi. Makura is pillow. He comes at night and turns over the sleeping person's pillow. Other than that, it does not harm people. Will the person notice that the pillow is turned over when they get up in the morning? Maybe, he has gone to your bedroom at night.

In conclusion, being a monster doesn't mean they are scary. Sometimes they apply to people and sometimes they behave strangely. I think that monsters are a symbol of the human inner-self. Perhaps, you may have encountered monsters without noticing. ☘

The guest writers,
Keiichiro and Takumi, are third year
students at Ichikashi High School.

Little Changes

Alison Abraham

Only by a little, the days are changing. Only by a little but still noticeable enough. When I leave my apartment in the early morning, the sun has already begun to rise. When I leave Ichikashi at the end of the day, the sun is setting but there's still a little light out. Two and a half years ago, I wasn't sure if I'd be able to handle the changing seasons in Japan. Now, I relish them. All the trees and flowers that bloom around me can be so lush thanks to the cold dryness of winter, and, maybe, that's how people are, too.

KIRA Shinnenkai

KIRA helped me welcome 2020 with the Torrance Committee's shinnenkai, or New Year's Party. As part of our entertainment, I made a Who Wants to be a Millionaire-esque quiz game for everyone to enjoy. We also spent a wonderful time enjoying bingo and a janken (rock-paper-scissors) tournament. Greeting the beginning of the year with familiar faces, such as my first host father Niwa-san and 2011 KIRA Adult Leader Shibata-san among many others, brought a warmth to me that nestled nicely in my chest. The laughter that filled the room that January night was definitely an auspicious start to the new year and the new decade.

As for school life, after returning from winter break, the students at Ichikashi seem more refreshed and lively. They've come out of hibernation, and they're ready for the end of the year. For the third year students - equivalent to seniors in US high schools - that ending will come sooner for them than the rest of their underclassmen. Their classes quickly draw to a close only one month into the new term, and they've got the rest of February off to prepare for their coming university life. I won't see them again until they return for graduation at the beginning of March. So, of course, as I was met with the last day of classes, I was filled with a bittersweet feeling.

These students were first years when I, too, could be considered a first year at Ichikashi. Now, with their graduation just around the corner, I'm made more aware of my own "graduation" later this year. I notice the changes in them, the growth and improvements they've made in the past three years, and I hope that I, too, have made a similarly positive transformation.

January always comes in with a rush, but time finds a way to slow down as it ushers in the next month. I just hope that the rest of this year goes by slowly, though I know that's rarely the case when you're having as much fun as I am every day. ☘
